

Graddoc

---

---

MARTHAM
INCLOSURE.

---

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the General Commissioners named and authorised in and by an act of Parliament passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act for Inclosing and Draining certain Lands in the parish of Martham, in the County of Norfolk," did at their last meeting direct and appoint, that in case any proprietor or proprietors of lands or tenements, in the said parish, or any other person or persons interested in the division and allotments to be made by virtue of, or under the said act, should have any objection or objections to any of the accounts or claims delivered to the said General Commissioners, he, she, or they should deliver such objection or objections, in writing, to the person or persons, whose account or claim, or accounts or claims, should be disputed or objected to, or to his, her, or their agent or agents, whose name or names is or are subscribed to such account or claim, or accounts or claims, on or before the 28th day of November instant; and also should deliver to the said General Commissioners, a duplicate or duplicates of such objection or objections, at their next meeting, under the said act.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN,

That the said General Commissioners intend to hold their next meeting, for carrying the said act into execution, at the house of the Widow Read, called the King's Arms, in Martham, in the said county, on Monday the 30th day of November instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and at their said next meeting, to receive, hear, and determine any objection or objections to the said accounts or claims.

SAMUEL BELL,

12th November, 1807.

Solicitor under the said Act.

---

PRINTED BY J. BEART, ON THE QUAY, YARMOUTH.

Martham
INCLOSURE.

---

Extracts FROM THE AWARD
OF
The General Commissioners.

---

BEART, PRINTER, YARMOUTH.

E Braddock

MARTHAM INCLOSURE.

EXTRACTS from the Award of George Cubitt, Esquire, and Robert Cory, the Younger, and Nathaniel Palmer, Gentlemen, (the said George Cubitt and Robert Cory being two of the General Commissioners named and appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-seventh year of the Reign of His present Majesty, King George the Third, intitled, "An Act for Inclosing and Draining certain Lands, in the Parish of Martham, in the County of Norfolk," and the said Nathaniel Palmer being the General Commissioner appointed by the said George Cubitt and Robert Cory, under or by virtue of the powers contained in the said Act, in the room of Thomas Glover Ewen, Gentleman, the other General Commissioner, named and appointed in and by the said Act) which Award bears even date herewith, and is to be deposited and kept in the parish church of Martham aforesaid.

AND WE, the said George Cubitt and Robert Cory, do further certify and declare, that we, and the said Thomas Glover Ewen, by examination of witnesses upon oath, and by other legal ways and means, inquired into the boundaries of the said parish of Martham, by which it appeared that the said boundaries were sufficiently ascertained and distinguished.

In the first place, We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby set out and allot unto the Special Commissioners appointed by the said act, the Banks, Drains, and Pieces of Land, next herein-after described—(that is to say:) FIRST—ONE BANK, marked No. 1, in the said map or plan of the said parish of Martham, hereunto annexed, being eighteen feet wide at the base, and four feet high, commencing near the boundary line dividing the parishes of Martham, and Repps with Bastwick, at a point distant about eleven yards from the North River, and proceeding first in an East and then in a North-East direction, to the North-East corner of the fifth allotment herein-after made to Mary Pollard, thence in a South direction, to the South-East corner of the first allotment herein-after made to John Barker Huntington, Esquire. SECOND—ONE DRAIN, marked No. 2, in the said map or plan, being ten feet wide at the top, and four feet deep, commencing near the boundary line dividing the said parishes of Martham and Repps, at a point distant about two hundred and sixty-four yards South from the said North River, and proceeding in an East direction to the South-West corner of an allotment herein-after made to the Reverend Paul Whittingham, as Vicar of Martham. THIRD—ONE OTHER DRAIN, marked No. 3, in the said map or plan, being fourteen feet wide at the top, and four feet deep, commencing at the East end of the last described drain, and proceeding in a North-East direction to the South-East corner of the eighth allotment, herein-after made to James Bane, which said drain communicates with the said drain secondly described, by means of an arch or tunnel, which has been placed by us, under the private road herein-after fourteenthly described. FOURTH—ONE OTHER DRAIN, marked No. 4, in the said map or plan, being twelve feet wide at the top, and four feet deep, commencing at the North-West corner of the twelfth allotment, herein-after made to Thomas Grove, Esquire, and proceeding in a North-East direction to a point distant about two hundred and fifty-three yards, North of the South end of the first described bank, which said drain communicates with the said drain thirdly described, by means of an arch or tunnel, which has been placed by us under the eleventh allotment, herein-after made to the said Special Commissioners. FIFTH—ONE OTHER DRAIN, called The Mill Drain, marked No. 5, in the said map or plan, being sixteen feet wide at the top, and five feet deep, commencing at the East end of the said drain secondly described, and proceeding in a North direction to the water-mill or engine which has been erected by us, and passing on the West side thereof, the said drain proceeds in a North direction to the river. SIXTH—ONE OTHER DRAIN, marked No. 6, in the said map or plan, being fourteen feet wide at the top, and four feet deep, commencing at the North end of the private road herein-after twelfthly described, and proceeding in a North-West direction on the North-East side of the said road, to the North end thereof, where it enters the said North River, which said drain is set out, as and for a public boat-dike, for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of estates within the said parish of Martham, for the time being, for the conveyance of corn, manure, and other things, to and from the said river. SEVENTH—ONE OTHER DRAIN, called The Land Spring Drain, marked No. 7, in the said map or plan, being twelve feet wide at the top, and four feet deep, commencing at a point, distant about twenty-two yards North of the North end of an inclosure of land, belonging to Mary Pollard, and proceeding in various directions at the foot of the highlands, to the South-West corner of the allotment herein-after made to the said Thomas Grove, for his right of soil. EIGHTH—ONE OTHER BANK, called The Land Spring Bank, marked No. 8, in the said map or plan, being eight feet wide at the base, commencing on the North side of the said last-mentioned drain, and extending in the same direction on the marsh side of the said Land Spring Drain, to the West end of the same. NINTH—ONE PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 9, in the said map or plan, containing, by measure, thirty-two perches, upon which a water-mill or engine has been erected by us, and is now standing, bounded by land, hereby allotted to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North, by land, hereby allotted to John and Robert Church, towards the East, and in part towards the South, by the fifth allotment herein-after made to the said Special Commissioners, in part towards the South, and by the next described allotment towards the South-West. TENTH—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 10, in the said map or plan, containing, by measure, two roods and twenty-five perches, bounded by the first allotment herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North, by the last-described allotment towards the North-East, by the fifth allotment herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the East, by the private road fourteenthly described, in part towards the South, and by land hereby allotted to John Giffard Jeffery, in part towards the South, and by land hereby allotted to the said John Giffard Jeffery towards the West. ELEVENTH—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 11, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, one acre, one rood, and nineteen perches, bounded by the first allotment, herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North-West, by the sixth allotment herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North-East, by the private road twelfthly described towards the South-East, and by land hereby allotted to Francis Riddell Reynolds and James Bane respectively, and the private road herein-after fifteenthly described, towards the South-West.

Steam Mill Staircase

Boat Staircase

TWELFTH—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 12, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, one rood, bounded by the first allotment herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North by the private road eleventhly described towards the East, and by land hereby allotted to the said Mary Pollard, towards the South and West, which said three last described pieces of land, are by us set out and appointed as and for public staithes, for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of estates, within the said parish of Martham, for the time being, for the laying and depositing thereon of the corn, manure, and other things, which shall be conveyed or shall be intended to be conveyed by the said river, or to and from the said river, by means of the said boat dike.) THIRTEENTH—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 13, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, nine acres, three roods, and twenty-six perches, called The Rond, lying between the first allotment herein-before made to the said Special Commissioners, and the said North River, and extending in an East direction along the said river to the East end of the said bank, and thence in a South direction to the South end thereof. FOURTEENTH—AND ONE OTHER DRAIN, marked No. 14, in the said map or plan, commencing at the said North River and extending in a South and South-East direction to the first allotment, herein-after made to the Surveyors of the Highways, together with the strip of land lying between the Repps bank, and so much of the said drain as extends from the said river to the marsh land, belonging to Sir John Lombe, Baronet, from the South end of which strip to the said first allotment, herein-after made to the Surveyors of the Highways, a moiety of the drain shall for ever hereafter be kept in repair by the said Special Commissioners. And we do also allot unto the said Special Commissioners, all the sluices, engines, bridges, and other works erected by us, together with the water-mill or engine which has been erected, and is now standing on the ninth allotment, herein-before made to them.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby set out and ap- Public Roads.
point the two public carriage roads in the said parish of Martham, herein-after described—(that is to say:) FIRST—ONE ROAD, commencing at the gate at the entrance of a road leading to Repps, and continuing in it's present course across Martham Green, 'till it enters the old inclosed road to Yarmouth, near the dwelling-houses of Thomas Rising and James Bane. SECOND—AND ONE OTHER ROAD, commencing at the end of the mill lane, and proceeding in a South direction, one hundred and sixty-five yards, under the East fences of inclosures belonging to several persons, thence in an East direction to the North-West corner of an old inclosure belonging to William Garnham, and thence under the North fence thereof, and continuing in nearly the same direction 'till it enters the Hemesby lane at the top of Gibbet Hill.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby set out and ap- Private Roads.
point the twenty private roads in the said parish of Martham, herein-after described—(that is to say:) FIRST—ONE PRIVATE ROAD, beginning at the East end of the second described public road on the top of Gibbet Hill, and proceeding in a North direction under the boundary fence, dividing the parishes of Martham and West Somerton, to the North-East corner of an inclosure of land, belonging to John Dawson, where it enters the public road leading from Martham to Somerton, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto, and of William Wells, in respect of his mill, for all persons going to and returning from the same, he the said

William Wells, and the owners of the said mill, for the time being, paying one-fifth part of the expence of repairing the said road. SECOND—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the said public road secondly described, at the South-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to John Ensor, Esquire, and proceeding in nearly a North direction, to the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to William Rising, where it enters an ancient lane, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto. THIRD—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, beginning at the West end of an old inclosure of land, called The Mill Close, belonging to and in the occupation of James Bane, and proceeding in an East direction, to the South-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Diana Creasey, where it enters the said first-described private road, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto, and of the said William Wells, in respect of his mill, for all persons going to and returning from the same, he the said William Wells, and the owners of the said mill, for the time being, paying one-fifth part of the expence of repairing the said road. FOURTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, commencing at the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said William Rising, and proceeding in a South direction, to the South-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Thomas Rising, where it enters the last-described private road, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto. FIFTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the said public road secondly described, at the South-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Sarah Thornton, and proceeding in nearly a North direction to the North-West corner of the same, which said private road is set out and appointed for the use and convenience of John Pollard. SIXTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, beginning at the South-West corner of the field-allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to John Carrier, and proceeding in an East direction, to the East corner of the field-allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to William Garnham, where it enters the said public road secondly described, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of Thomas Grove, Esquire. SEVENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of an ancient lane, at the South-West corner of an inclosure of land belonging to William Brunson, and proceeding in an East direction to the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to William Womack, in Moonshine Field, thence in the same direction under the North fence of the said field, thence in a South direction under the East fence of the said field, and thence in an East direction, to the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners to Mary Pollard, which said private road, is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto. EIGHTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, commencing at the South-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners to Diana Creasey, and proceeding thence in an East direction to the South-West corner of the Home Pightle, belonging to the said Thomas Grove, which said private road, is set out for the use and convenience of the said Thomas Grove. NINTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, commencing at the North-East end of an ancient lane, and proceeding thence in a North-East direction across the Church Hill Field, to a point distant about twenty yards from the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners to Charles Pollard, where it enters the old road leading through Church-Hill

Close, belonging to Diana Creasey, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of lands, in the said parish of Martham. TENTH—ONE OTHER ROAD, commencing at the North end of an ancient lane, opposite the dwelling-house, late belonging to William Fairweather, and proceeding first in a North-East, and thence in nearly an East direction, to the South-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Mary Pollard, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land, lying in the said parish of Martham. ELEVENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the last described road, at the West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to James Bane, and proceeding in a North direction to the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Special Commissioners, for a public staithe, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land, in the said parish of Martham. TWELFTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, commencing at the North end of the Staithe Lane, and proceeding in a North-West direction on the West side of the eleventh allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Special Commissioners, for a public staithe, to the North-West corner thereof, where it adjoins the swim, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land, in the said parish of Martham. THIRTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the last described road, at the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Benjamin Rising, and proceeding in a North-East direction to the South-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Thomas Grove, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of lands adjoining thereto. FOURTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, commencing at Conyard's Falgate, and proceeding in a North-West direction, under the North-East fences of old inclosures belonging to Alexander Parker and the Widow Linford, to a point opposite the dwelling-house belonging to Charles Pollard, thence in a North-West direction to a point opposite the dwelling-house late belonging to Thomas Crane, the elder, thence in nearly a North direction, crossing the land-spring and cross-drains, to the South-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Special Commissioners, for a public staithe, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land, in the said parish of Martham. FIFTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the last-described road, at the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Aaron Dunt, and proceeding thence in a North-East direction, to the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Francis Riddell Reynolds, Esquire, where it enters the private road twelfthly described, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto, and of Thomas Francis. SIXTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the fourteenth described private road, at the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Robert Porter, and proceeding thence in a West direction, to the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Thomas Grove, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto.—SEVENTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the fourteenth described private road, at the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Thomas Rising, and proceeding thence in nearly a West direction, to the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Thomas Francis, thence in a South direction, on the West side of the same allotment, to the South-West corner thereof, thence in nearly a West direction, under the North fence of an inclosure of land belonging to the said Thomas Francis, to the North-West corner of the same, thence in a South direction, under the West fences of divers inclosures belonging to Thomas Francis, Richard Vincent, and John Beverley, to a point opposite to the stable belonging to and in the occupation of the said Thomas Francis, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto. EIGHTEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the fourteenth described private road, at the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to Robert Linford, and proceeding in a North-East direction, to the North-West corner of the garden belonging to the said Robert Linford, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto, and of Thomas Rising, William Rising, and Charles Pollard. NINETEENTH—ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the fourteenth described private road, at the North-West corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to John Goose, and proceeding thence in a North-East direction, to the North-West corner of the garden belonging to the said John Goose, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the said John Goose and of William Bushell.—TWENTIETH—AND ONE OTHER PRIVATE ROAD, branching out of the fourteenth described private road, at the North-East corner of an allotment made by us the said General Commissioners, to the said Charles Pollard, and proceeding in nearly a West direction, to the North-West corner thereof, which said private road is set out for the use and convenience of the owners and occupiers of land adjoining thereto. AND we do hereby declare, that the said several private roads are likewise set out and appointed for the use and convenience of the Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Norwich, of the Foundation of King Edward the Sixth, and the Chapter of the same Church, and their lessees, for the time being, and the Vicar of the Vicarage of Martham, for the time being, and his lessees, and for the use and convenience of the Lords and Ladies of the several manors, mentioned in this our award, to pass to and from the lands and tenements, hereby declared to be copyhold of the said several manors, and to or towards which the said private roads respectively lead, and also for the use and convenience of the Special Commissioners.

Allotments to the Trustees for the Poor.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby assign, set out, and allot unto the Lord of the said Manor of Martham, and unto the Vicar, Church-wardens, and Overseers of the Poor, of the said parish of Martham, the four pieces of land, next herein-after described—(that is to say:) FIRST—ONE PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 179, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, twenty-nine acres, three roods, and nineteen perches, bounded by the seventh allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North, North-East, and in part towards the East, by land hereby allotted to the Surveyors of the Highways, in part towards the East, by the private road seventeenthly described, in part towards the South, by land hereby allotted to William Rising, in part towards the West and in part towards the South, and by land hereby allotted to the said Thomas Grove, in part towards the West. SECOND—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 164, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, forty-one acres and twenty-seven perches, bounded by land hereby allotted to John Ensor, John Pollard, Alexander Parker, William Garnham, and William Davey, respectively, towards the North, by the eighth allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, and land hereby allotted to William Woods, towards the East, by land hereby allotted to the said Alexander Parker and William Woods, respectively, and the said eighth allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the South, and by the eighth allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the West. THIRD—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 174, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, five acres, bounded by the seventh allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North and West, by land hereby allotted to Thomas Rising, towards the East, and by land hereby allotted to the Feoffees of Martham Free-School, towards the South. FOURTH—AND ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 208, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, two acres, bounded by land belonging to Thomas Francis, towards the North-East, by land hereby allotted to William Bushell, towards the South-East, by land hereby allotted to John Goose and Mary Ledgett, respectively, and land hereby allotted to the Surveyors of the Highways, towards the South-West, and by the private road fourteenthly described, towards the North-West. And we do hereby certify and declare, that we have made, or given directions for making the fences and ditches in the allotments hereby made to them, as aforesaid (that is to say:)--In the said first allotment, fences on the South and West parts thereof; In the said second allotment, a moiety of a ditch on the North part thereof; In the said third allotment, fences on the East and South parts thereof; And in the said fourth allotment, fences on the South and West parts thereof, and a ditch on the North part thereof; and that we have placed, or given directions for placing, proper gate-posts and gates in the said allotments; and we do hereby order and direct, that the fences, ditches, gate-posts, and gates, so made and placed, or directed to be made and placed, shall for ever hereafter be maintained in good repair and condition, by the Trustees for the Poor of the said parish of Martham, for the time being. AND we do hereby declare, that the land comprised in the said allotments, is in our judgment, equal in value, to one-tenth part of the average value of the said commons and waste-grounds. AND we do hereby declare, that the land, comprised in the said second allotment, is to be drained, by virtue of the said first-mentioned act.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby assign, set out, and allot unto the Surveyors of the Highways, for the said parish of Martham, the four pieces of land, next herein-after described (that is to say;) FIRST—ONE PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 183, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, one acre, one rood, and eight perches, bounded by land hereby allotted to Richard Vincent, towards the North and East, by the private road seventeenthly described, and land hereby allotted to the said Thomas Francis, towards the South, and by the fourteenth allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the South-West. SECOND—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 176, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, one acre, bounded by the seventh allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North, by land hereby allotted to the Feoffees of Martham Free-School, towards the East, by the private road seventeenthly described, towards the South, and by land hereby allotted to the said Trustees for the Poor, towards the West. THIRD—ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 167, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, one acre, bounded by the seventh allotment made to the said Special Commissioners, towards the North, by the private road fourteenthly described, towards the North-East, by the private road twentiethly described, towards the South, and by land hereby allotted to William Woods, towards the West. FOURTH—AND ONE OTHER PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 207, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, two roods and thirty perches, bounded by land hereby allotted to the said Trustees for the Poor, towards the North-East, by land hereby allotted to Mary Ledgett, towards the South-East, and by the private road fourteenthly described, towards the South-West and North-West. AND we do hereby declare, that we have made, or given directions for making, fences in the allotments hereby made to them as aforesaid—(that is to say:)—In the said first allotment, fences on the North, East, and South parts thereof; In the said second allotment, fences on the East, South, and West parts thereof; In the said third allotment, fences on the North, East, and South parts thereof; And in the said fourth allotment, fences on the South-West and North-West parts thereof; and that we have placed, or given directions for placing, proper gate-posts and gates, in the said allotments. AND we do hereby order and direct, that the fences, gate-posts, and gates, so made and placed, or directed to be made and placed, shall, for ever hereafter, be maintained in good repair and condition, by the Surveyors of the Highways, for the time being. AND we do hereby declare, that the said allotments are made to the said Surveyors of the Highways, as and for public sand, gravel, clay, and chalk-pits, and to the intent, that the said allotments may, for ever hereafter, be used by the said Surveyors of the Highways, and the proprietors of lands and estates, in Martham aforesaid, and their tenants, for the time being, as and for public sand, gravel, clay, and chalk-pits, for the use of the inhabitants of the said parish, and to be used there; and also for procuring clay for the daubing such houses, tenements, and buildings, as now, or shall hereafter, belong to the persons, to whom any land or ground shall be allotted, by this our award, their heirs or assigns, and in such other manner, and under such rules and regulations, as the said Surveyors of the Highways shall direct or appoint.

Allotments to the Surveyors of the Highways.

Allotment to Special Commissioners of Martham Green.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby assign, set out, and allot unto the said Special Commissioners, and their successors, in trust for the Lord of the said Manor of Martham, (according to his estate and interest therein, immediately previous to the passing of the said act) his heirs and assigns, and in trust for a common of pasture for all the proprietors of hereditaments, in the said parish of Martham, who, immediately previous to the passing of the said act, had rights of common on the waste lands, in the said parish, their heirs and assigns, ONE PIECE OF LAND, marked No. 219, in the said map or plan, containing by measure, five acres, one rood, and thirty-two perches, bounded by the road leading to the Church, called Black Street, by houses and land belonging to John Ensor, Francis Riddell Reynolds, Robert Ward, the Feoffees of Martham Free-School, and William Rogers, respectively, towards the North, by land belonging to the Reverend Charles Boutell and Diana Creasey, respectively, towards the North-West, by land belonging to Nathaniel Hindle, Daniel Cockerill, William Rogers, and Thomas Francis, respectively, and an ancient lane, towards the East, by land belonging to James Bane, Thomas Francis, Thomas Rising, Richard Warner, John Cobb, William Garnham, John, and Robert Church, John Moxon, and Harber Pettingill, respectively, towards the South, by land belonging to John Moxon and Thomas Crane, towards the South-West, and by land belonging to Harber Pettingill, the public road leading from Martham to Repps, and land belonging to Rebecca Benslin, towards the West and North-West, which said piece of land surrounds about eighteen perches of land belonging to John Le Nain and Thomas Dixon, upon which stand two dwelling-houses and other buildings.

AND We, the said General Commissioners, do hereby order and direct, <sup>Directions respecting Private Roads.</sup> that the several private roads, herein-before described, shall be and remain of the breadth of eighteen feet; and that all the said private roads shall, for ever hereafter, be maintained in good repair and condition, by the several persons, who shall, for the time being, be entitled to take and enjoy the grass and herbage growing thereon; and that they shall place, and for ever keep in good repair and condition, proper stiles, bridges, and planks, upon the said private roads, where the same shall be necessary, for the accommodation of passengers, cattle, and carriages, passing and repassing thereon, such persons respectively maintaining, in good repair, the parts of the said private roads, on which they respectively shall be entitled to take and enjoy the grass and herbage, and placing and maintaining, thereon, such stiles, bridges, and planks, as are herein-before directed, except that the said William Wells, and the owners, for the time being, of his said mill, shall pay towards the repair of the said first and third private roads, as herein-before directed.

AND We do hereby order and direct, that the owners and occupiers, for the time being, of such pieces of land hereby allotted, as do not adjoin to any public or private road, hereby set out and appointed, shall, for ever hereafter, have a right of passage for themselves, and their cattle, and carriages, to and from the same, from and to the public or private road or roads nearest to the said pieces of land, through, over, and upon, the lands that lie between the said pieces and the said public or private roads. <sup>Right of Passage to Lands not adjoining any Public or Private Road.</sup>

AND We do hereby order and direct, that the several new fences, hereby directed to be made by the said several proprietors, in their said allotments, respectively, shall consist of ditches, four feet wide at the top, and three feet deep perpendicular, and of banks adjoining to such ditches, and formed of the earth taken from the same, and that the banks of such fences shall be planted with white-thorn layer, and that half-hurdles or thorns shall be set on the summit of such banks, and shall there remain, or if taken away or spoiled shall be from time to time renewed, during the space of three years next ensuing the date of this our award, and that such new fences shall be made on the land of the respective proprietors, who are hereby directed to make the same. <sup>Respecting the making of Fences.</sup>

AND We do hereby order and direct, that the wet ditches hereby directed to be made by the said proprietors, in their said allotments respectively, shall be and remain of the breadth of twelve feet at the top, and four feet deep perpendicular, and that the said ditches and fences hereby directed to be made, shall be made within twelve calendar months next after the execution of this our award. <sup>Respecting Ditches.</sup>

Given under our hands, this twelfth day of June, 1812.

Geo. Lubbock
Morgan
Wm. Lubbock