In Witness whereof we the said General Commissions have to this our award (which is to be deposited in a tin box in the parish church of Martham aforesaid) subscribed our names and affixed our seals the twelfth day of June in the fifty-second year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith and in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and twelve.

Let this Award, together with the plan and the Oaths of the Commissioners thereunto attached, be enrolled in His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas at Westminster pursuant to the Act of Parliament dated this 30th day of April 1813.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of

Samuel Bell

James Cobb

The following is not part of the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award but provides brief details about all the people named in the Award.

Bane, James (1768-1834). You can read all about James at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=10639

Barber, Elizabeth. I am not sure if Elizabeth was single or married. If she had been married and was a widow, there are a number of possible candidates living in the area with the same name who may have been her. She was allotted plot No30 by the General Commissioners in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, which was situated to the east of the village on the boundary with West Somerton and plots 141 & 142 which were pastures adjacent to the River Thurne at Cess.

Benslin, Rebecca. (About 1769 until after 1812). She was the daughter of John Benslin (1738-1780) & Rebecca, nee Rising (1744-1775). She was allotted some land by the General Commissioners in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award in her own name plus other land jointly with her married sister Mary Boulton. Even in late medieval times a spinster typically had to give up her estate to her new husband upon marriage. This was due to the prevailing legal and social norms of the time but there is no record of Rebecca having married; nevertheless, this may have been set up as a legal device to ensure the land did not transfer to any husband she may marry in the future. In 1812 she owned plot No 82 on her own and plots 38, 54, 83 & 84 jointly with her sister. The land would probably have been let to provide a small income for the sisters. You can read more about the Rising family at: http://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13495

Beverley, John (1774-1835). John was born in 1774 at Halvergate, Norfolk, as the first child of Nicholas BEVERLEY and Mary. He was baptised on 26th February 1774 at Halvergate. When he was 32, he married Ann SHORTEN on 26th April 1806 at Halvergate. Under the 1812 Inclosure Award he was allotted land at plot No181 detailed as follows:- one piece of land marked No181 containing by measure one acre, and thirty-five perches bounded by land allotted to Thomas Grove towards the north and west; by the private road seventeenthly described towards the east and by land allotted to Richard Vincent towards the south. John died in 1835 at Martham, aged 61 and was buried on 23rd October 1835 in an unknown grave

Boulton, Mary, nee Benslin (1771-1846). She was the daughter of John Benslin (1738-1780) & Rebecca, nee Rising (1744-1775). She married William Boulton on 1st January 1806 at Halvergate. She was allotted land by the General Commissioners in the 1812

Martham Inclosure Award and she held four of the plots with her sister Rebecca. Even in late medieval times, a spinster (or unmarried woman) typically had to give up her estate to her new husband upon marriage. This was due to the prevailing legal and social norms of the time but in this case it does not seem to have happened as Mary still owned land in 1812 despite being married to William Boulton who did not die until 1830. This may have been because her mother, Rebecca, was from the Rising family who were large landowners and gentry of their day. It is possible that the land she held passed down through her mother from her uncle Thomas Rising (1742-1794) as Mary also features in his Will. Some of the land she was allotted in 1812 was owned jointly with her sister Rebecca and this may have been a legal device to ensure the land did not transfer to her husband. Three pastures, Nos 82, 83 & 84 were near the River Thurne and Martham Broad which would have been let to provide a small income for the sisters. You can read more about the Rising family at: http://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13495

Boutell, Reverend Charles (1771-1855). You can read about Charles and his wife Mary on my website at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=34246

Bowgen, Benjamin (1778-1851). He was recorded in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award as being one of the Feoffees (Trustees) of Martham Free School. He was not allotted any land in his own name in the Award. He was born in 1778 at Hemsby and died in September 1851 at West Somerton, where he was buried.

Brunson, William (1756-1847). William BRUNSON was born in about 1756, probably at Martham where he always lived but sadly the baptism records for St Mary the Virgin at Martham have been lost for this period so little is known about his early life. He was a farmer and married twice having at least nine children. His first wife was Mary HILL who he married on 14th October 1794 at St Mary the Virgin. Mary died on 30th May 1820 and was buried at St Mary's graveyard, section F, plot O8. His second wife was Ann PARKER and they were married on 18th May 1825 again at St Mary's.

In 1807 William claimed ownership of land under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act that included a house, stable, barn and garden amounting to one acre and three roods that were freehold. In addition, he claimed two more cottages occupied by others that he held copyhold of the Manor of Martham. At the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, William was allotted three plots of land, Nos 76 & 77 that were at Damgate where his home had always been and plot No 45 that was in the east field area of Martham but as previously mentioned, he also owned other land that was freehold.

The census of 1841 confirmed that he was a farmer living at Damgate.

In 1842 William was listed as the owner of ten plots of land in the 1842 Martham Tithe Award and these again included that same land where he lived at Damgate.

William died, aged 91, on 11th July 1847 and was buried on 16th of that month in the same plot as his first wife. His second wife, Ann, who about 40 years his junior, died on 13th July 1881 and was buried at St Mary's on 18th July in section F, plot O9.

Carrier, John (1748-1826). You can read all about John and his family at:- https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=34196

Chapman, Robert (1758-1841). Based on his age at death Robert was born in Martham in about 1758. He married Ann Greenacre at St Mary's on 30th October 1785 and they had four children. He was allotted plot No99, a pasture at Cess, by the General Commissioners in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. At that time he was living with his wife off Back Lane, Martham but they moved to Great Yarmouth in about 1834 according to the electoral rolls of the time. Robert died on 23rd December 1841 and Ann on 5th February 1846 at Great Yarmouth but they were buried together at St Mary's, section G, plot G8 of the graveyard.

Church, John & Robert. The relationship between John & Robert is unknown. It is tempting to assume they were brothers or perhaps father and son but I cannot trace or prove their actual relationship or anything else about them. The land they claimed in 1807 was actually allotted to them in 1812 as plot No 35 which was at the far north end of Common Road next to the River Thurne and opposite what is today the boatyard.

Cobb, John (1774-1859) was born on 2nd June 1774 and baptised at Dilham, Norfolk on 13th of the same month. When he was 21, he married Elizabeth BAILEY on 23rd August 1795 at Westwick, Norfolk.

It seems that John never lived in Martham but in 1807 he claimed ownership of a cottage, barn, stable, yard and garden under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act. The cottage, etc, was let to tenants.

Before the actual Martham Inclosure Award was compiled in 1812 wording in it tells us that the land and cottage that John claimed in 1807 had been sold to William Wells (mill owner) before the Award was completed. John died in 1859 and was buried on 23rd January that year at Sloley, Norfolk, England.

Cockerill, Daniel (1759-1824). Daniel was born on 18th November 1759 at Reedham where he lived for the whole of his life. When he was 24, he married Mary DURRANT on 21st June 1784 at Reedham. He owned copyhold land in Martham that his son, also called Daniel, occupied. The land he claimed in 1807 was allotted to him in the actual 1812 Award and consisted of a pasture (plot 129) on the east side of Common Road towards the north end near the boatyard. Daniel also owned a plot of land thought to be on the north side of The Green where his son lived that was freehold and consisted of a house, shop, stable, shed and yards etc. Daniel senior was buried in February 1824 at St John the Baptist Churchyard, Reedham.

Conyard, Lucy (1767-1819). Lucy, nee Mileham, was born in 1767 at Martham and married Benjamin Conyard on 14th November 1787 at St Mary's. Benjamin was listed as the occupier of plots 343a, 389 & 397 in the 1807 preliminary schedule produced by the Commissioners but the claim was actually made in Lucy's name and he was recorded as her agent. Plots 343a and 389 were tiny pastures but plot 389 is where Cess Farm stands today and may have included a double cottage or semi-detached pair. Plot 397 stands at the west end of Sandy Lane and is known as Conyards Farm today.

It was unusual in 1807 for a married woman to own land in her own name rather than it being in her husband's name. None of these plots were allotted to either Benjamin or Lucy in the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award as they appear to have been owned freehold and were not subject to Inclosure. What was No397 in 1807 is marked as being owned by B Conyard on the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award map.

Lucy was allotted one plot of land in her own name in 1812 Award that was a pasture at the north end of Cess. She died in October 1819 and was buried at St Mary's in an unknown grave. Her husband, Benjamin, went on to marry Jane Shrimpton at Ormesby St Margaret on 29th May 1820.

Cookson, Elizabeth (nee Creasey) 1750-1825. Elizabeth was born at Great Yarmouth on 17th January 1750 to William Creasey & Mary, nee Robins. Her father, William, was a very successful grocer, draper and landowner who died in 1797, having retired to Great Yarmouth. Elizabeth married Joseph Cookson in 1787, who died in 1825, leaving her a widow by the time of the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act. By that time she had inherited the 112-acre Manor of Moregrave & Knightleys and as such she was the wealthiest lady in Martham at that time. You can read more about her, her family and background at:

http://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3048#part4

Cory, Robert Jnr.(1776-1840). Robert was one of the General Commissioners of the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. He was a highly respected man. He was an attorney and at one time town clerk and also the Mayor in 1803 and 1815. He was the Registrar of Yarmouth Admiralty Court, Capt. of Militia in 1803, and commanded a company of riflemen. He lived at Burgh Castle, near Great Yarmouth but died in London. Robert bought land beside the river for a ferry crossing and built the suspension bridge there in 1829 having persuaded other businessmen to invest money in building a toll road between Acle and Great Yarmouth. The suspension bridge collapsed in 1845 and a blue plaque marks the spot. Sadly, the bridge collapsed with terrible loss of life, 79 in all, 59 of them were children. On 2nd May 1845, Cooke's Royal Circus staged a stunt where a clown, Arthur Nelson, sailed up the River Bure in a bathtub pulled by four geese. A crowd of approximately 300-400 people gathered on the bridge to watch the performance. The excessive and uneven load caused one of the suspension rods to fail, followed by the snapping of chains, leading to the collapse of the south side of the bridge deck into the river. Panic ensued, and many victims, predominantly children, were crushed or drowned in the seven-foot-deep water.

Crane, Thomas, the Elder (1729-1812). Thomas was born and baptised at Potter Heigham. He married Elizabeth Harris at Potter Heigham on 2nd October 1747. Most of the land he owned in Martham was freehold and he lived at Cranes Green Farm which was just south-west of the village Green in a very attractive thatched house that still stands today and is now known as Oaklands. His land that was immediately to the south of the farmhouse is now part of the Willows estate. The land he listed in his claim of 1807 included the farmhouse and its land (plot Nos82 & 83), two plots at Mustard Hyn, Cess (Nos424 & 426), and a nearby pasture No524 that was copyhold. Thomas died during the Inclosure process period in April 1812 and was buried at St Mary's on 7th April 1812. Under the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award his heirs were allotted plot No124 that was the same as No524 in 1807 and was held copyhold of the Manor of Martham. The rest of his land was freehold and was not, therefore, subject to inclosure.

Crane, Thomas, the Younger (1757-1833). Thomas was the son of Thomas Crane senior (1729-1812). It is thought that he lived with his parents at Oaklands, Cranes Green, Martham. In 1807 he claimed a house and land in his own name that was freehold. By the time of the actual Award in 1812 he was allotted one pasture of just over two acres at Mustard Hyn.

Creasey, Diana (1757-1834). Diana was one of the biggest Martham landowners of her generation and you can read all about her at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=19913

Cubitt, George (1758-1835). George was one of the General Commissioners of the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. He was a notable figure in the historical records of the Catfield area. He was Lord of the Manor of Catfield and a landowner. He married twice; firstly to Mary Finley of Burton-upon-Stather, Lincs in 1781 and after her death in 1801 to Frances Parish of Upminster, St Laurence, Essex on 2nd March 1802.

Davey, William (1779-1833). Under the 1807 Inclosure Act, William claimed ownership of a house listed in the claims schedule as plot No179 which was on the east side of Black Street near the Village Green. His claim says he lived there, which must have been for a comparatively short period as he lived most of his life at Ormesby St Margaret where he was born, married, died and was buried. At the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, William was allotted one piece of land No162 that was a pasture at Common Road, Cess, just opposite Mustard Hyn.

Deary, Sarah (1761-1842). Sarah, nee Whitaker, married John Deary at East Somerton on 6th January 1784. John died in 1797 aged only 35. So under the 1807 Inclosure Act it was Sarah who claimed ownership of two houses, a barn and a stable measuring 4 acres & 2 roods of freehold land, but the Commissioners listed her claim as being plot No195 measuring one rood & 24 perches; plot No302 measuring 4 acres & three perches and plot No509 measuring two acres, two roods & ten perches. Plot No195 was tiny and its exact whereabouts is unknown, but is believed to be near the junction of White Street and School Road. Plot No302 was on the north side of Staithe Road opposite School Road. Plot No509 was a pasture at Cess near the River Thurne. At the time of the actual Inclosure Award in 1812, Sarah was allotted one piece of land that was plot No100 which was a pasture at Cess and the same as plot No509 in 1807. Sarah died in 1842 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin on 29th January 1842.

Ditcham, Samuel (1752-1822). Samuel was born in 1752 at Ludham, Norfolk. When he was 32, he married Elizabeth WOODS on 8th February 1784 at St Mary the Virgin, Martham. In 1807 he claimed ownership of land under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act registered as plot Nos 209 & 506. Plot 209 was situated at the west end of Somerton Road, on the north side of the road opposite Pratts Loke and consisted of a pair of freehold semi-detached cottages occupied by himself and Samuel Rust. Plot No506 was a pasture near the River Thurne at Cess. Under the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, Samuel was allotted plot No 97, which was the same as No506 in 1807. Samuel died in 1822 at Martham and was buried on 10th October that year in an unknown grave at St Mary the Virgin.

Dixon, Thomas, Jnr. (1765-1829). He was not allotted land in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award but his name appears as the owner of freehold land and a house in the description of plots adjacent to his at what is now 17a The Green, the Island Site in the centre of The Green that he had inherited from his father of the same name. He was a shoemaker. For more information about him and the Island Site go to https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3792

Drake, Eleanor. Eleanor married Daniel Drake at Great Yarmouth on 11th April 1801 but was listed as being a widow at that time. I cannot find out anything else about them in their earlier life. She laid claim to small pieces of land at Martham in 1807 as the widow of Daniel so he must have died between 1801 and 1807. The first plot she claimed was No165, which was freehold and measured only 31 perches and was situated somewhere near to where Manor Farm, Back Lane is today; secondly plot No516 that was a pasture adjacent to the River Thurne. In the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award she was allotted plot No114 that was the same land as plot No516 in 1807.

Dunt, Aaron (1762-1834). Aaron was born at Stalham, Norfolk in 1762 and married Sarah HINDLE at St Mary the Virgin, Martham on 13th February 1791. They had six children between 1792 and 1802 and he worked as a cooper in Martham where he employed an apprentice in 1795. In 1807 he claimed ownership of land under the Martham Inclosure Act as plot No162, that was freehold and probably his home, and plot No530 that was a pasture at Cess. By the time of the actual Award in 1812 Aaron was allotted plot No130 which was the same land as plot No530 in 1807. He died in aged 72 and was buried in an unknown grave at St Mary the Virgin, Martham on 2nd October 1834.

English, Elizabeth, nee Annison (1756 – 1811). Elizabeth was born around 1756 in Martham, but this was a period when the Church registers were lost, and so no baptism record can be found for her. She married William ENGLISH, a boatman, at St Mary's on 21st January 1777. William died in 1791. In 1807, as a widow, she claimed freehold ownership of plot No304 (of about two acres) that was situated in Staithe Road immediately to the east of Clarkes Farm. She also claimed plot No535, which was a pasture off Common Road, more or less opposite Mustard Hyrn. She died in 1811 and was buried on 19th April in an unknown grave at St Mary's. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award it was her heirs that were allotted one piece of land being plot No161 that was the same pasture claimed as plot No535 in 1807.

Ensor, John (1773-1841). John Ensor Esquire inherited the Lordship of the Manor of Rollesby in 1811 following the death of his father-in-law Edmund MAPES. John followed Edmund MAPES initial claim by submitting a late claim under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act for land and property he owned there amounting to just over 74 acres. Under the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award John was allotted three pieces of land that were copyhold of the Manor of Martham. They were numbered plot numbers 20, 148 & 149. Plot No20 was the same land as plot No114 in 1807 and was a pasture in the east field system. Plots 148 & 149 made up the same pasture at Cess as plot No550 in 1807. All the other land he claimed in 1807 was freehold and not subject to Inclosure.

Ewen, Thomas Glover (1746-1813). Thomas was one of the Commissioners for the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. He married Anna Maria JOHNSON on 28th October 1782 at St Simon and St Jude, Norwich. She was descended from the distinguished L'Estrange family of Norfolk. Thomas was a Gentleman and Land Agent at Norwich.

Fairweather, William (1745-1811). William was born at Rollesby and married Sarah HARBOARD, on 30th May 1763 at St Mary's. He was a carpenter and they lived at Damgate. He died in September 1811 after making an initial claim under the 1807 Inclosure Act. Consequently, by the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award the land allotted was in the name of the Heirs of William Fairweather. The plots allotted were Nos 73 & 74 and were next to each other at the north end of Damgate, plot No73 included his former home.

Faulkner, John (About 1756 -1833). John is believed to have been born in Martham but the St Mary's church registers for this period have been lost so there is no way of checking a baptism record for him. He married Hannah NEAVE at St Mary's on 12th October 1809. Under the 1807 Inclosure Act he claimed ownership of land identified as plot No221 which was where he lived at Damgate Corner, being the junction of Damgate and Staithe Road. The actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award makes it clear that he had sold the freehold land (plot No221 in 1807) to John Littleboy sometime between 1807 and 1812. John died in March 1833 and was buried on 12th March that year at St Mary's in an unknown grave. Hannah died in 1860.

Francis, Thomas Snr. (1743-1837). Thomas came from a landowning family at Ingham. At the time of the 1812 Award he owned a substantial farm of about 80 acres based at West End Farm (now Grange Farm) at Common Road, Cess. His estate included both freehold and copyhold land and property. He and his family represented the highest level of gentry in the parish. His gravestone at St Mary's says he lived in Martham for 72 years.

Francis, Thomas Jnr. (1771-1820). Thomas was the son of Thomas Francis (1743-1837). In 1807 he made a joint claim with his brother-in-law William Rising for the Vicarage and Glebe land that they held on leased from the Dean & Chapter of Norwich. They were allotted the same under the actual 1812 Award.

Gallant, Robert (1756-1832). Under the 1807 Act Robert claimed ownership of two plots. No413 was freehold consisting of a tiny 27 perches with a cottage on it. Plot No538 was a copyhold pasture off the west side of Common Road, Cess towards the River Thurne. Under the actual 1812 Award he was allotted the same piece of pasture that had become plot No158. It is difficult to imagine how he ever made a living out of such a small amount of land so presumably he was also an agricultural labourer working for others but nothing more is known about him.

Garnham, William John (1761-1829). Listed in the 1812 Award as simply William Garnham he was a successful shopkeeper. He married Susanna Ivory on 30th September 1783 at Saint Peter Parmentergate, Norwich. You can read far more about him and his family on my website at https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=16221#garn1761

Gedge, William (1787-1871). William was born and died at Rollesby. He married Elizabeth Evans on 12th November 1820 at Hemblington, Norfolk. He made a late claim under the 1807 Act but was allotted one piece of land marked No14a in 1812. This was at what we now know as Gibbet Hill on the north side of Hemsby Road.

Goose, John (1767-1847). John is part of the Goose family that has deep roots in Cess, Martham. He married Elizabeth Timby at Sutton, Norfolk on 24th December 1789 and they had five sons and a daughter. He worked the land but was also a part-time brickmaker and the plot that was No345 in 1807 was still his at the time of the 1842 Tithe Award and was a brickground. He died in 1847 and was buried in an unknown grave at St Mary the Virgin, Martham on 1st August that year.

Gray, Eizabeth (dates unknown). Little is known about Elizabeth and her husband John Gray (or Grey) other than that they were married on 19th January 1797 at St Mary the Virgin, Martham. She was a spinster and he was a widower. Neither of them could write, which may explain why his surname sometimes appears as GRAY and at other times GREY. Her maiden name was sometimes spelt Creasey and at other times Creary. In 1807 married women did not normally own land or property as it was held in the name of their husband. Elizabeth's 1807 claim said her husband occupied the land and he signed it as her Agent, so he must have been alive and as he was acting as her Agent he was presumably mentally competent to do so. In the Commissioner's summary schedule of claims, John Gray is listed in his own name as owning/occupying plot Nos 228 & 234 both amounting to a total of 4 roods and 11 perches. Elizabeth Gray is listed separately as the owner/occupier of plot No468, amounting to 2 acres & 3 roods. Both are completely different to the one acre of her original claim. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, Elizabeth was allotted plot No81 that was the same land as plot No468 in 1807. In addition, the same land that were plots Nos228 & 234 in 1807 were marked on the 1812 map as being owned by John Grey and was not subject to Inclosure. It seems that the couple wanted the freehold land to be in the name of John Gray and the copyhold land in the name of his wife, Elizabeth. All the land was in Damgate.

Greenacre, John (1775-1850). John was born at Hickling in 1775. He married Martha, nee Cooper on 29th January 1810 at St Mary the Virgin, Martham and they went on to have seven children between 1812 and 1825; five boys and two girls. John made a late claim under the 1807 Act and was listed in the Commissioner's summary schedule as being the owner/occupier of plot No561 measuring one acre, one rood & eight perches. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award John was allotted plot No196 which was the same land as in 1807. The plot he occupied in 1807 and 1812 was off Common Road, Cess at one of the oldest settled parts of Cess. John died on 6th February 1850 and Martha in July 1865 and were buried together at section F, plot B3 of St Mary's graveyard.

Grimson, Aaron & Lydia. Unusually Aaron & Lydia were allotted land in joint names by the General Commissioners in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. Aaron was born on 23rd November 1760 at South Walsham and Lydia was born in 1753 at Upton, Norfolk. They married on 23rd May 1781 at Upton. Under the 1807 Act they claimed two plots of land at the north end of Damgate. They were plot Nos277 & 463. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award Aaron & Lydia were jointly allotted plot No75 which was the same land as plot No463 in 1807. The other plot (No 277 in 1807) was freehold and not subject to Inclosure. Lydia died in 1821 and Aaron in 1833. They were both buried at St Mary the Virgin in separate graves.

Grove, Thomas (about 1758-1847). Thomas became Lord of the Manor of Martham in 1781 and was the largest landowner in the parish at that time owning in excess of 550 acres of land but never actually lived in the village. He was an investor from Wiltshire and part of the landed gentry. He was allotted thirteen plots of land in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award and then took part in several exchanges of land at the end of the process. In addition, he owned a large amount of freehold land as part of his estate in the parish. You can read more about him and his family at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3384#GroveT

Harrison, William (1743-1820). William made a claim under the 1807 Act for ownership of a house, outbuildings and windmill that were occupied by his son-in-law William Wells. These were the mill house and windmill at Hemsby Road (ex Mill Lane). Interestingly he was not awarded the same land and property when the final Award was completed in 1812 by which time his son-in-law William Wells was allotted the land and property. So, it seems that between 1807 and 1812 William Wells had taken over ownership. William Harrison was also a shopkeeper, grocer and merchant

Hill, Robert (1796-1848). Robert was baptised at Martham on 27th November 1796 and married Jane, nee Worts on 25th May 1823 at Winterton, her home parish. Robert made a late claim under the 1807 Act and was listed in the Commissioner's summary schedule as being the occupier of arable land at plot No563 that was off Common Road, Cess and consisted of one acre and seventeen perches. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, Robert was allotted plot No193 which was the same land as in 1807. He died in 1848 and was buried on 3rd October at St Mary the Virgin. Jane died on 23rd April 1869 and was buried at St Mary's on 28th April 1869. The exact position of their graves is unknown.

Hindle, Nathaniel (1739-1824). Nathaniel was born at Stalham and married Margaret Dains there on 1st June 1762. Under the 1807 Act he was listed as the freehold owner of a cottage on plot No171 that measured only 20 perches. This is believed to have been near the north-west corner of The Green and the south end of White Street but has not been identified exactly. He was not allotted any land in the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. Margaret died in July 1769 and was buried at Stalham whilst Nathaniel died in March 1824 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin in an unknown grave.

Huggins, William (1761-1836). William was born at Ludham and married Elizabeth, nee Leist there on 2nd December 1873. In 1807 he claimed plot Nos363 & 570. Plot 363 was a small pasture measuring three roods and 19 perches that he owned freehold. Plot No570 measured two acres and 36 perches that he held copyhold of the Manor of Martham. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award he was allotted plot No191. The plot consisted of two acres and 36 perches of land containing two cottages. This was situated just south of Common Road towards the north end and next to what is today footpath No14. Plot No570 in 1807 was the same land as plot No191 in 1812. Both William & Elizabeth died at Martham; Elizabeth in 1827 and William in 1836. They share a grave at section F, plot M5 at St Mary the Virgin graveyard.

Huntington, John Barker (1774-1832). John was born in 1774 at East Somerton to a family connected to the landed gentry. He was married twice. Firstly to Ann Barker on 18th May 1802 with whom he had two children and then, after Ann died in 1804, to Isabel Hetherset on 21st August 1813 with whom he had five children. John was Lord of the Manor of Somerton and a major landowner around the Somerton area. He lived at the magnificent Burnley Hall, East Somerton. At the time of the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act he claimed ownership of 17 plots of land amounting to 142 acres, 3 roods and 18 perches. This included the whole of Martham Broad, the islands on it and most of the pasture surrounding it. A great deal of the land he claimed in Martham was freehold. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award he was allotted five pieces of land that were plot Nos 59, 60, 68, 69 & 70, amounting to 115 acres, 3 roods & 26 perches most of which was, again, Martham Broad held copyhold of the Manor of Martham. John died on 12th December 1832 at Bologne, Haute-Marne, Champagne-Ardenne, France.

Jeffery, John Giffard (1765-1848). Better known as John Gifford JEFFREY. John was born at Ludham. He married Sarah Rust there on 24th November 1795. He was a surgeon who seems to have invested in land mainly in Damgate but not exclusively. At the time of the 1807 Act the Commissioners listed him in their schedule of claims with eleven plots totalling 32 acres, one rood & 16 perches. The plots were Nos104d, 210, 212, 233, 239, 263, 269a, 297, 299 & 540. No104d was to the south side of Hemsby Road whilst the others were a mixture around Damgate and Somerton Road. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award he was allotted six pieces of land as follows, plots 22, 46, 105, 106 , 134 & 135. Plot No22 was pasture between Hemsby Road and what is now Footpath No19. Plot No46 was a field directly to the east of what today is the Medical Centre in Hemsby Road. Plots Nos105 & 106 were pastures in Cess. Plots Nos134 &135 were pastures immediately to the west of Cess Staithe.

Ledgett, Mary, nee Myhill (1758-1817). Mary was the widow of John Ledgett, who died in 1806. Mary & John married at St Mary the Virgin on 15th October 1779. They lived just off the east side of Cess Road, Cess and under the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award she was allotted plot No206 measuring just one rood there. Mary was buried at St Mary the Virgin graveyard on 11th August 1817 in an unknown grave.

LeNain, John (1755-1845). John was born at Repps on 22nd December 1755. He married Mary Dixon on Christmas Day 1782 at Martham. He was not allotted any land in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award but made a claim under the process that makes it clear he owned a semi-detached cottage and 17 perches of land that today we know of as 17a The Green. He died on 9th December 1845 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin graveyard, where his gravestone can be seen near the main door.

Linford, the brothers Robert, Crispin, Francis, William, James and George. They were the sons of Crispin Linford (1754-1790) and his wife Sarah. The Inclosure records are the only ones that identify William, James and George who are thought to have been born sometime between 1786 and 1790. The other boys have baptism records. They made a claim for one plot of land in joint names in 1807 which was listed as plot No391. By the time of the actual 1812 Award they were allotted the same copyhold land as plot No203 which was south of what is now Cess Lane where their widowed mother lived, their father having died in 1790. They do not appear to be related to the William Linford that follows.

Linford, William (1748-1822). William's birth date is very uncertain. He married Sarah Frosdick at Woodbastwick, Norfolk in 1771 and they had six sons. Their eldest son was called Moses and he grew up to be a guiding light in the local Baptist Church. Moses also inherited most of the land owned by his father. You can read more about Moses and his family at https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=5425 Under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act William claimed freehold ownership of the following five plots plus copyhold occupation of the sixth. They consisted of a total of 13 acres, 3 roods and 31 perches. The plots were:-- No241 that was where Bensley Road and the Water Tower are today.

No311 that was where Oak Tree Close is today and at the time included a dwelling with land, barn, stable, outbuildings, yard and garden.

No312 was a cottage next to No311.

No384 was a plot in Cess Road and now has a bungalow called Ribena and a detached house called Holmlea on it.

No392 was where Coronation Cottages, Cess now stand.

No526 was a pasture near the River Thurne.

By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award, William was allotted two pieces of land that were plot Nos122 & 123, which were pastures next to the River Thurne, being the same as plot No526 in 1807. William died in 1822 and was buried on 22nd May that year in an unmarked grave at St Mary the Virgin, whilst his wife, Sarah, died in 1826 and was buried on 10th June 1826 also at St Mary's graveyard.

Littleboy, Robert (about 1777-1864). Robert was born in Martham. He was a farmer of a small amount of land and remained a bachelor. His mother, Sarah, claimed a pasture under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Award but the form was signed by Robert as her agent. Sarah was a widow aged about 69 at the time and may have needed his help. At the time of the actual Award, in 1812, it was Robert who was allotted the land claimed by his mother that had become plots No78a & No79 at the north end of Damgate. Robert was believed to have lived at a cottage that still exists today and is now 16 Damgate.

Littleboy, Sarah, nee Fairweather. Her date of birth is uncertain but would be about 1738 based on her age of 78 when she died at Martham. She married Robert Littleboy on 14th October 1760 at St Mary's. She became a widow in 1795 when her husband died. In 1807 she claimed occupation of a pasture under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act but notably her son, Robert – see above, signed the form as her agent. When the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award was completed, it was her son who was allotted the land she had claimed. Sarah was buried at St Mary's on 26th August 1816 in an unknown grave.

Lusher, Thomas (About 1737-1817). Thomas is thought to have been born in about 1737 but some of the Martham baptism registers for this period have been lost or were not properly kept and consequently, there is no early record for him. He was a tailor and married Dorothy Randall on 25th November 1766 at St Mary the Virgin and they had at least six children. Under the 1807 Act he claimed a messuage, barn, stable that measured two acres, two roods and 26 perches recorded as plot No 169 that was near the entrance of what was once the Martham Mushroom Farm and is now at the junction of Portobella Drive and White Street. This must have been freehold as he was not allotted any land under the actual 1812 Award but is mentioned in it twice as being the holder of land adjacent to others when their awards are described.

Manship, John (1785-1837). John was born in Hemsby in 1785. He married Sarah Salmons there on 11th April 1809. Under the 1807 Act John claimed ownership of land and property that were plot Nos130, 196 & 197, amounting to 5 acres, 2 roods & 3 perches. Plot No130 was the last field in the parish of Martham situated on the border with Martham and Somerton next to the north end of Private Road number one and John still held it freehold in 1812.

Plot Nos196 & 197 were small, totalling only one rood & 36 perches together and are thought to have been near the corner where Church Cottages are today on the bend at White Street/Somerton Road. John was not allotted any copyhold land in the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award but the land he owned freehold is mentioned to reference plots allotted to others.

Manship, William. (1742-1807). William married Mary Crowe at West Somerton in 1770. He claimed ownership of three cottages, that were let, on one rood of land, plus two acres in his own occupation, which was made up of one acre & two roods that were copyhold and 38 roods that were freehold. He died in September 1807 and consequently did not appear in the Commissioners' schedule of claimants that was published in November 1807. What happened to his land is unknown.

Mapes, Edmund (1745-1811). Edmund Mapes Esquire was born in Rollesby where his family had held the Lordship for several generations and he was the Lord of the Manor there until his death in 1811. He married twice and had two daughters but no sons. He made an initial claim of land and properties under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act. However, before his claim could be fully determined, he died and the Lordship passed to his son-in-law John ENSOR whose own late claim was accepted – see John ENSOR above.

Mitchells, John (about 1743-1823). John is thought to have been born in about 1743 but the Martham baptism registers for this period have been lost and consequently there is no early record for him. Little more is known about him other than that he lived on the east side of Damgate in 1807/1812. He died at Martham, aged 80, in 1823 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin graveyard on 27th July 1823 in an unmarked grave.

Moxon, John (1751-1826). He was born in Great Yarmouth. There is no record of him living in Martham but he owned land there probably as an investment. Under the 1807 Act he claimed ownership of land and property one of which was south of the village Green, which later was the site of Chapman's Butchers and this was occupied at the time by Richard Warner. Under the actual 1812 Award John was allotted one piece of land marked No132 that measured one rood and nineteen perches, which was a pasture just off Common Road at Cess. John died in 1826 at Great Yarmouth.

Parker, Alexander (1764-1830). Alexander was born in Great Yarmouth. He married Ann, nee Chapman, at St Mary the Virgin on 20th February 1785; she was from Martham. They had at least nine children. Alexander was a gentleman landowner and under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act claimed ownership or occupation of 33 acres, 1 rood & 2 perches of land that included land at Thunder Hill and where Rose Farm, Cess now stands. Some of this land was freehold but the majority was copyhold of the Manor of Martham. By the time of the actual 1812 Award he was allotted 27 acres and 31 perches of land. Some of the land he owned was where Rose Farm at Cess still stands to this day and he may have lived there. He died in 1830 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin in an unknown grave.

Palmer, Nathaniel (1778-1854). Nathaniel was married to Sarah, nee Spelman, and was one of the General Commissioners appointed under the 1807 "Act for Inclosing and Draining Certain Lands in the Parish of Martham" that led to the Martham Inclosure Award of 1812. He was a solicitor and lived at The Quay, Great Yarmouth.

Pettingill, Harber was born in about 1784 and was better known as Harber Pettingal. He had a brother named William who was also a landowner at Martham. Harber was born in Martham but came from a land-owning Filby family. Under the 1807 Act he was listed, in error, as Henry and was shown in the Commissioners' summary of claims as the owner/occupation of 21 acres, 2 roods & 27 perches of land, eighteen acres of which was let to Robert Marston that included a house, barn, stables and outhouses and was freehold. The rest was copyhold of the Manor of Martham. The house and barns etc were probably on plot No80 and was called Ivydene that was where England & Co., Solicitors stands on The Green today. You can read more about Ivydene at:

https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=17242#ivydene

By the time of the actual 1812 Award Harber was allotted three pieces of copyhold land that were plot numbers 47, 136 & 137. Plot No47 was on the south side of Hemsby Road where the Medical Centre now stands. Plot Nos 136 & 137 were the same pasture land numbered as 542 in 1807 and were near Cess Staithe and the River Thurne. Harber also owned freehold land shown as plots 75, 79 & 81 in 1807 where just over 100 years later West Grove, Rollesby Road was built. Adjacent to this Harber also owned land that later became part of the Willows Estate.

Pettingill, William was born in 1787 at Martham. He had a brother named Harber who was also a landowner at Martham. Under the 1807 Act William claimed ownership of two plots that were No119 and No246. These were both on the boundary between Martham and West Somerton and were let to Robert & William Rising. No119 was immediately to the west of what is now footpath

No21 whilst No246 was just north of Somerton Road. By the time of the actual 1812 Inclosure Award William was allotted one piece of land No18 that was the same as plot No119 in 1807. Nothing further is known about William.

Pollard, Charles (1767-1841). Charles was baptised at Clippesby on 26th January 1767 as the son of Thomas Pollard & Elizabeth, nee Savory. Charles had two brothers called William and John – see below. The Pollards of Clippesby were successful land-owning farmers and the three sons of Thomas & Elizabeth spread their farming wings to Martham by the time of the Inclosure records for the village. Under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act, Charles claimed ownership/occupation of 23 plots of land amounting to 102 acres, 2 roods & 25 perches. These were both copyhold and freehold and were all in Cess and Mustard Hyrn where he held more land than anyone else at the time. Under the same Act he was also included as being the shared occupier of a house, barn, stables and 41 acres of land owned by his brother John – see below. By the time of the actual 1812 Inclosure Award, he was allotted six plots of land that had also been listed in 1807 and confirmed his copyholding of twenty-one acres, three roods & one perch of land. Charles was married twice; firstly, to Sarah Mann on 25th September 1795 at Stoke Holy Cross, Norwich and after her death in 1814 he married her sister Rebecca Mann on 20th December 1819 at St Bride's Church, Fleet Street, London. Charles died in 1841 and Rebecca in 1855. Charles and his first wife, Sarah, were buried at St Peter's Church, Clippesby, whilst Rebecca was buried at Stoke Holy Cross, Norwich.

Pollard, John (1756-1814).

John was born on 3rd February 1756 at Clippesby as the son of Thomas Pollard & Elizabeth, nee Savory. He had two brothers called Charles and William. The Pollards of Clippesby were successful land-owning farmers and the three sons can be seen to have spread their farming wings to Martham by the Inclosure records for the village. Under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act John claimed ownership/occupation of 22 plots of land totalling over 106 acres. These were both copyhold and freehold, situated on the east side of the village, apart from one pasture (No552) at Cess. According to his claim, most of his land was let to tenants. By the time of the actual 1812 Inclosure Award John was allotted seven plots of copyhold land measuring just over 53 acres, and in addition he owned other freehold land as indicated in his original 1807 claim. John married a widow called Palgrave Skinner (nee Humphrey) on 18th October 1796 at St Peter's Church, Burlingham, Norfolk and during most of the above period they lived at South House Farm, Clippesby. John died on 12th November 1814 at Clippesby and was buried at St Peter's Church there on 17th November.

Pollard, William & Mary. Mary, nee Markham (1742-1824) was the wife of William Pollard (1750-1812) and he was the brother of Charles and John shown above. Mary's husband made a claim under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act, claiming ownership/occupation of a house, barn, stable, outbuildings and land amounting to 83 acres, three roods and seven perches. William died in February 1812 before the claim could be settled and Mary repeated the claim as a late applicant. By the time of the actual 1812 Award she was allotted six plots of copyhold land amounting to just over 18 acres that were plot Nos 56, 58, 64, 65, 66, & 67. In addition, she owned a substantial amount of freehold land. William has a grave next to Mary's at section F plot I13 at St Mary the Virgin. She died in 1824 and was buried in a grave next to her husband's at section F, plot I12 on 3rd May that year.

Porter, Robert (1775-1859). Robert was born in Martham on 2nd March 1775. Under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act he claimed ownership of plot Nos 271 and 539, amounting to 3 acres, 2 roods & 23 perches. Plot No271 was freehold arable land at Damgate and plot No539 was a copyhold pasture at the north end of Common Road, Cess. Under the same process, Robert was recorded as being the occupier of The Vicarage at Martham that was owned by The Reverend Paul Whittingham, Vicar of Martham. By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award he was allotted three small plots of land that made up the same as plot No539 in 1807. On 16th October 1820 he married Elizabeth Carrier at St Mary the Virgin at Martham. Robert is famous for writing a book called 'The Strangers Guide to the Polite Village of Martham' published in 1830. The book is jocular in tone and includes general historical and local statistical material as well as sketches, maps, grotesques, caricatures and printed ephemera. You can read more about Robert and his book at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=1404. Robert died on 25th January 1859 and was buried with his wife in the graveyard at St Mary the Virgin, Martham

Powles, Robert (1778-1860). Robert was born in Norwich but had moved to Martham by 1806 when he married Susannah Gedge at Hemsby on 21st October that year and some accounts show that they went on to have up to 17 children. Robert was a shoemaker but also owned/occupied two pieces of land under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act and the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. Firstly, he occupied a small piece of copyhold land listed as plot No104e in 1807 and was also allotted the same piece of land in 1812 when it was listed as plot No23. It was situated just south of the Hemsby Road. He also owned a freehold piece of land that measured just over two acres and was situated in a prominent position in the centre of Martham on the junction of Repps Road and Rollesby Road and was recorded as being plot No328 in 1807. By 1841 Robert & Susannah had moved to Winterton-on-Sea, where she died in 1847 and he died on 15th June 1860. They are both buried at Holy Trinity & All Saints Church, Winterton-on-Sea.

Powley, Christmas (1756-1828) or his son Christmas Powley (1784-1832). It is not clear which of the father or son the Inclosure records apply to because both were alive during the events of 1807 and 1812 and no other documents provide supporting clues. As the son would have been only 23 in 1807 the balance of probability leans towards the father owning the land. The 1807 claim was for By the time of the actual 1812 Martham Inclosure Award Christmas was allotted one piece of land marked as plot No98 which measured one acre, two roods and twenty-four perches that was a pasture to the south of the River Thurne. Being allotted a pasture that was previously common land indicates that Christmas owned other freehold land in the parish but it is not known where that was.

Proctor, Francis (1738- 1810). Francis was born at Martham in 1738 to Phillip Proctor and Mary, nee Sexton. His father was the Lord of the Manor of Martham from 1741 to 1778 so Francis came from a farming background. He married Mary Jay at St Benedict, Horning, Norfolk on 19th January 1773 and for many years they lived at North Walsham where they had at least nine children. They moved to Cess, Martham in 1797 and lived just off Common Road on about four acres of land part of which was freehold and part was copyhold of the Manor of Martham. Francis died in 1810 and was buried on 16th November at St Mary the Virgin graveyard. He had made a Will but it had not been probated at the time of the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award and so the Commissioners allotted land under the names of 'The heirs of Francis Proctor deceased'. In 1812, his heirs were allotted plot No196 and he had also owned the adjoining plot that was freehold. His wife Mary continued to live at Cess and did not die until she was 94 in November 1846 when she too was buried at St Mary's graveyard near the grave of her husband.

Ransome, Robert (dates unknown). Very little is known about Robert. Under the 1807 Act he claimed ownership/occupation of a semi-detached cottage and one acre of land. He lived in one cottage and the other was let. The cottage and yard were said to be copyhold and the land was freehold and situated between Common Road and Low Road, Cess. By the time of the actual 1812 Inclosure Award Robert was allotted two pieces of land that were plot Nos198 & 199. Plot No198 was the same as plot Nos378 & 559 in 1807 whilst plot No199 was the same as plot No377 in 1807. In 1820 Robert appeared in the list of voters for the Great Yarmouth and was listed as a cordwainer (shoemaker) from Martham so he must have also owned property or had a business in Great Yarmouth and was qualified to vote there. Nothing further is known about him.

Reynolds, Francis Riddell (1771-1846). Francis was the son of John Reynolds, a solicitor, and Ann Pain. Francis followed in his father's footsteps and became a solicitor in Great Yarmouth. He was also an Alderman on Great Yarmouth Council and in 1804 was the Mayor of Great Yarmouth. He married Ann Preston at St. Nicholas Church, Great Yarmouth on the 25th July 1793. They lived in a very substantial house in Great Yarmouth and had eight children. Francis held great influence and had the power to appoint many of the clergy in his family into the livings of various parishes. He died on the 28th December 1846 aged 75 and was buried at St Nicholas Church, Great Yarmouth on the 5th January 1847. At the time of the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act he was an agent who claimed ownership of The King's Arms PH occupied by Mary Reed, the landlady. The Tithe payer was E Lacon and Francis made the claim on behalf of Lacons the Brewers who built and owned the pub. By the time of the actual 1812 Award he was allotted one piece of land in his own name that was plot No96 and was situated on the west side of Ferrygate Lane Staithe.

Rising, Benjamin (1775-1835). Benjamin was a major landowner in both Martham and the surrounding area. Between 1807 and 1812 he farmed just over 101 acres of land in Martham alone. He was a member of the Rising landowning and farming family dynasty and you can read more about him at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13340

Rising, Thomas (1777-1824). Thomas was a major landowner in both Martham and the surrounding area. Between 1807 and 1812 he farmed just over 112 acres of land in Martham alone. He was a member of the Rising landowning and farming family dynasty and you can read more about him at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13371

Rising, Thomas Sutfield (1774-1855). Thomas was a landowner in Martham in 1807/1812. Between 1807 and 1812 he farmed just under 14 acres of land in Martham alone. He was a member of the Rising landowning and farming family dynasty and you can read more about him at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13868

Rising, William (1769-1846). William was a major landowner in both Martham and the surrounding area. Between 1807 and 1812 he farmed just over 206 acres of land in Martham alone. He was a member of the Rising landowning and farming family dynasty and you can read more about him at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=13174

Rogers, William (1743-1841). William was born at Catfield in about 1743 and married Ann Bacon at Ludham on 6th April 1773. In 1802 he purchased a "tenement dwelling house with garden, land, grounds and other hereditaments" near the Green. He was a wheelwright. In 1807 William claimed ownership of a house, shop, yard and garden of about one rood under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act. He claimed he owned and occupied it freehold. All his land appears to be owned freehold. The actual 1812 Award mentions him as the owner of property to the north of the Village Green (plot No219) so this supports the fact that he lived there. According to the 1841 census William lived alone at The Green, Martham. In 1842 he was listed (posthumously) as the owner of plot No679 in the 1842 Martham Tithe Award. The plot was a cottage, beside Back Lane pond, measuring 27 perches. He had died on 1st December 1841 and was buried at St Mary the Virgin, Martham on 5th December that year at section F, plot O5 of the graveyard.

Sowells, Daniel (1739-1811). Daniel was a farmer from Rollesby. He was not allotted land in the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award but his name appears as the owner of a freehold plot in the description of a plot adjacent to his, No225, owned by Thomas Grove. The plot he owned was No38 in 1807 and was shown in his name in 1812.

Thornton, Sarah (1751-1817). It is not clear if Thornton is her maiden name or married surname. There is a record of a Sarah Thornton who died 1817, aged 66, at Great Yarmouth that may be her but little else is known about her. Under the 1807 Act she claimed ownership of two acres of arable land occupied by a tenant called James Thompson, so Sarah may not have even lived at Martham. By the time of the actual 1812 Award Sarah was allotted plot No15 that measured one acre, two roods and thirty-two perches that was situated just to the south of Hemsby Road. After a long search I could not find out anything else about Sarah and it may be that she remained a spinster.

Vincent, Richard (1758-1834). Richard was born in about 1758 and married Elizabeth Howell at St Mary the Virgin on 28th January 1782. Under the 1807 Act Richard claimed ownership/occupation of plot Nos310, 358, 358a & 576, measuring a total of seven acres & one rood. Plot Nos358 & 358a were freehold and were where he lived. By the time of the actual 1812 Award Richard was allotted two plots of land that were plot No182 measuring one acre, three roods and thirty-five perches and plot No185 measuring one acre, two roods and twenty-six perches. These were situated a short distance from his home in Common Road, Cess. Elizabeth died in 1816 and Richard in 1834; both were buried in unmarked graves at St Mary the Virgin.

Ward, Robert (1749-1829). Robert was a blacksmith and lived where Norwich House, The Green stands today. He married a lady called Elizabeth but I have not been able to find out when or her surname. Robert claimed ownership/occupation of two plots under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act. Plot No182 was where Norwich House stands today and plot No513 was pasture land adjacent to the River Thurne at Cess. By the time of the 1812 Inclosure Award Robert was allotted plot No110 that was the same land as plot No513 in 1807. The 1807 plot No182 was owned freehold and was therefore not subject to enclosure in 1812. Robert died in 1829 and was buried on 15th September that year at St Mary The Virgin graveyard in an unmarked grave.

Warner, Richard (1741-1814). Little is known about Richard and even his birthplace is unknown. In 1807 he claimed occupation of just over six acres of land under the Martham Inclosure Act and the information indicated that he was a baker working from a property on The Green. He rented property and was only allotted pasture land near the River Thurne at the time of the 1812 Martham Inclosure Award. He died at Martham and was buried in an unmarked grave at St Mary the Virgin on 17th April 1814.

Watson, Clement (1745-1817). Clement was one of the Watson family who lived at Mustard Hyrn, next to Cess, at Martham for several generations. You can read more about the Watson's and other families from Mustard Hyrn at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3056

Watson, John (1778-1858). John was the nephew of Clement Watson, above, and another of the Watson family who lived at Mustard Hyrn, next to Cess, at Martham for several generations. You can read more about the Watson's and other families from Mustard Hyrn at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3056

Watson, William (1742-1818). William was the brother of Clement Watson, above, and another of the Watson family who lived at Mustard Hyrn, next to Cess, at Martham for several generations. You can read more about the Watson's and other families from Mustard Hyrn at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=3056

Wells, William (1771-1846). Born at Strumpshaw, William became a miller operating out of the Mill House and windmill at Hemsby Road, Martham. He was married and had a son who followed him into the same profession, which had its ups and downs. You can read more about William and his family at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=10725

Whittingham, Reverend Paul (1754-1834). As the Vicar of Martham he was entitled to the vicarial tithes associated with his post. In 1812 he was allotted one piece of land as the Vicar of Martham that was plot No131 which was a pasture situated off the east side of Common Road near the present-day boatyard. You can read more about the Rev. Whittingham at: https://marthamnorfolk.co.uk/?page_id=15808

Wilson, George (1748-1834). George was born in Norwich but by 1779 he had married Elizabeth Hill on 30th December that year at St Mary the Virgin, Martham and they then had two children. Under the 1807 Martham Inclosure Act he claimed seven plots numbered 202, 211, 222, 236, 298, 303 & 515 that totalled 13 acres, 3 roods & 37 perches that included a messuage, barn, yards and a garden in his own occupation plus two further cottages that were let. Part of his land included where Bramble Cottage, Somerton Road and Brickfield Farm, Staithe Road now stand. Most of what he owned was freehold and not subject to Inclosure so by the time of the actual 1812 Inclusion Award he was only allotted two plots that were Nos107 & 108 that were pastures at Cess and the same as plot No515 in 1807. Elizabeth died in 1823 and George in 1834 and they share the same grave at section F, plot O10 at St Mary's graveyard.

Womack, William (1765-1845). William was born at Mautby, near Runham where his parents lived. None of them appears to have lived at Martham but they owned land there and were farmers. William married Matilda Knights on 29th December 1794 at Wangford near Southwold and they went on to have at least eleven children. In 1812 William owned four plots of land in the Damgate area of Martham and was allotted three more in the same area that were copyhold of the Manor of Martham. He died in 1845 and was buried at Winterton having lived at East Somerton for some years.

Woods, William (1764-1830). William was born in Hemsby. He married Ann Harbord on 16th October 1787 at St Mary the Virgin, Martham and they went on to have at least ten children. He was a blacksmith working from home at Black Street, Martham on land that he owned freehold and was listed as plot No188 in 1807. He also occupied other arable land and pastures at Cess that were held copyhold of the Manor of Martham. He died in 1830 and was buried in an unknown grave at St Mary the Virgin on 26th November that year.
